Office Notes,Office memorandum of Coram, appearances,Court's orders or directions & Registrar's orders.	Court's or Judge's orders

.....

CORAM: A.S.OKA, J.
DATED: APRIL 21, 2006.

P.C.:

1. The First Appeal is preferred for challenging the order made on application under Section 372 of the Indian Succession Act,1925. Apart from the provisions of Sub section 2 of Section 388 of the said Act of 1925, the amount which is subject matter of the original application is less than Rs.2,00,000/-. Office is directed to transfer the First Appeal to the appropriate District Court forthwith.

2. All amounts which are deposited in this Court in the present First Appeal shall also be transferred to the concerned District Court. Office will also forward all pending Civil Applications to the concerned District Court.

3. Considering the fact that the Appeal arises out of the applications filed in the year 1990, the concerned District Court will hear and decide the Appeal as expeditiously as possible and preferably within a period of six months from date of receipt of the record of the First Appeal.
